Now comes the plaintiff and moves for an extension until January 12, 2007 to file the Plaintiff's Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment, and as cause therefore states:

1. On December 1, 2006, counsel for the Defendant filed a Motion for Summary Judgment and a Memorandum with over 1000 pages of exhibits and other supporting documents. The Plaintiff's Opposition is due to be filed on December 18, 2006. This matter is involves four separate cases with some related issues, but different facts in each case.
2. Due to the large volume of materials, several other scheduled matters and the approaching holiday season, it will be difficult to meet with the plaintiffs and prepare the oppositions within the time frame currently in place.
